ON HER MAIDEN TRIP

Disaster Overtakes a Fine New Passenger Boat.

AGROUND IN A DENSE FOG.

She Carried Forty Passengers Besides the Crew and a Valuable Cargo Believed to Be Badly Damaged by the Rocks.

Halifax, N. S., March 13.—The new Allan Line steamer Castilian, from Portland for Halifax, went ashore at Gannet rock light, near Yarmouth, at low tide in a dense fog, her compasses being deranged.

The assembly considers the fact that I do not aid it in efforts to raise loans, which later would compromise the greatest financial and political interests of Cuba, to be an act of insubordination and of want of respect. The primary cause for the action taken against me is my conviction that Cuba should begin the exercise of its own sovereignty as a republic of union and concord, proclaimed at Monte Cristo and sustained on the field of battle, free from all compromise, keeping the nation's honor spotless.

"As for the rest, as a sincere man, I confess I thank them because they relieve me of great political obligations and also leave me free to return to my abandoned home. I have sheathed my sword, thinking I had finished the mission which I had voluntarily imposed upon myself. Wherever destiny rules that I make my home, there can the Cubans depend upon a friend."

ON HIS DISMISSAL

General Gomez Addresses the Cuban People and the Troops.

Havana, March 13.—General Maximo Gomez, who was roundly denounced and dismissed from his position as commander-in-chief of the Cuban army at an excited session of the general assembly, has issued the following statement to the Cuban people and the army:

"By the use of the supreme faculties with which it is endowed, the assembly, representing the army only, has deposed me as commander-in-chief of the Cuban army, which grade it conferred upon me during the last war. As commander-in-chief I always followed the dictates of my best conscience and endeavored in all circumstances to fulfill my duty.

The assembly considers the fact that I do not aid it in efforts to raise loans, which later would compromise the greatest financial and political interests of Cuba, to be an act of insubordination and of want of respect. The primary cause for the action taken against me is my conviction that Cuba should begin the exercise of its own sovereignty as a republic of union and concord, proclaimed at Monte Cristo and sustained on the field of battle, free from all compromise, keeping the nation's honor spotless.

"As for the rest, as a sincere man, I confess I thank them because they relieve me of great political obligations and also leave me free to return to my abandoned home. I have sheathed my sword, thinking I had finished the mission which I had voluntarily imposed upon myself. Wherever destiny rules that I make my home, there can the Cubans depend upon a friend."

Burned His Sister.

Marshfield, Wis., March 13.—A shocking tragedy has occurred at Milladore. Mrs. Erhard, a widow, left her home to call on a neighbor and locked her two children, a girl and boy, 3 and 5, respectively, in the house. The little girl went to bed and complained of being cold. Her little brother thereupon went to the stove, scraped a few live coals together and laid them on the bed beside his sister. The bedclothing ignited and burned the little one to acrisp.

Cash Paid In.

Washington, March 13.—The first four of the 24 semi-annual notes given by the Central Pacific Railroad company in settlement of the government's claim against the road amounting to nearly $12,000,000 were anticipated and paid into the United States treasury at New York by Speyer & Company, representing the officers of the Central Pacific company. The available cash balance in the treasury is increased by this amount.

Tugs For Manila Bay.

San Francisco, March 13.—The ship S. N. Castle, which has arrived from Honolulu, brings tidings of the drowning of L. Lowman, a passenger who was making the trip for his health, and who accidentally fell overboard on Friday, March 3. His body was not recovered. He was about 40 years of age, and was from Cincinnati, though he had recently resided near Los Angeles.

To Test Arctic Currents.

San Francisco, March 13.—A task, which has been undertaken in the interests of both science and of commerce, is to be begun this week, in the voyage of whalers from San Francisco to the Arctic ocean to test the Arctic currents. Fifty patent casks of a peculiar shape have been constructed and will be sent on the revenue cutter Bear and other boats to be distributed in different parts of the ocean; then to be picked up by vessels which pass them later, and thus it is hoped to determine the currents of the Arctic and the theory of an open passage around the pole from Atlantic to the Pacific.

Lost In the Blizzard.

Rapid City, S. D., March 13.—The blizzard that swept over the country east of this city was the worst ever experienced here. Reports just coming in say that at least two lives were lost. The son of Shelby Reed, a large sheep owner, who was out tending sheep, is missing, and there is little doubt that he perished. A mail carrier named Pearson is also missing. Shelby's horse came home riderless during the storm.

Planted a Liberty Tree.

Santiago, March 13.—Senor Bacardi, mayor of Santiago, planted a tree of liberty in the plaza Dolores, in the presence of more than 3,000 children, representing the different schools of the city, as well as a large concourse of citizens. He spoke of the glorious deeds of Cuban patriots during the last few years and through their uphill struggle in the face of immense odds.

Strikers Got the Best of It.

Quincy, Mass., March 13.—Committees of the Granite Manufacturers' association and the Cutters' union reached an agreement, and the strike, which has been in progress for two weeks, has been declared off, the men agreeing to return to work on Tuesday. The men have the better of the bargain.

Lancaster, Pa., March 13.—The plant of Gray Iron Casting company, manufacturers of iron novelties and shelf hardware, at Mount Joy, was completely destroyed by fire. Loss about $60,000; partly insured.

THEIR COURAGE FAILED

Filipinos Plan an Attack on the American Lines.

FIRED SIGNALS, BUT FLUNKED

Fusillade Along Hale's Front Silenced by Newly Arrived Troops After an Hour's Hot Work—Natives in Manilla Cowed.

Manilla, March 13.—The Filipinos apparently had planned an attack upon the lines of General Otis and General Hale, but their courage seemed to fail them, though they fired signals and afterward kept up the fusillade along the American front for an hour.

Our troops, in obedience to orders, refrained from shooting with the exception of two companies of newly arrived men, who replied until they had suppressed a regiment of Aguinaldo's red brigade. This body of rebels seemed under better leadership than most of the others, and a white man was seen among the officers, endeavoring to lead them to the attack, but apparently all efforts to induce them to leave the trenches were futile.

The American authorities in Manilla say the city is now so effectively policed that a serious outbreak is impossible. They believe that the natives are cowed.

The presence of the families of officers is discouraged, and many are leaving on board the United States transport, some going to Japan for temporary residence. General Otis has remarked: "Manilla is no place for women. This is a war, not a picnic."

Several soldiers were sunstruck in the streets of Manilla. Most of them were men not yet acclimated.

A French Opinion.

Washington, March 13.—Lieutenant DeFaramond of the French navy recently arrived here to become naval attaché of the French embassy. He said: "The American navy has attracted worldwide attention within the last year, and this is leading European countries to send naval attaches to Washington. Since the Spanish-American war this country affords splendid facilities for navy study. It was the first real test of modern fighting vessels and naval science must draw its conclusions largely from what the American navy accomplished during the war with Spain. I think it is universally conceded in Europe that the American navy made a splendid record."

Volunteers Wish to Remain.

Washington, March 13.—The following is an extract of a letter from Major Theodore Sternberg, paymaster of United States volunteers at Manilla: "I wish you would call the attention of the president and secretary of war to this: There is not less than 10 percent of the volunteers who wish to make homes here and engage in agriculture, lumbering and mining. From every point of view this should be encouraged unless America means to haul down its flags and sneak home. Now these soldiers wish to be discharged here with travel pay. This will be their capital."

Mrs. Keifer Is Dead.

Springfield, O., March 13.—Mrs. J. Warren Keifer, 64, wife of Major General Keifer, died here of pneumonia. She had been ill but little over a week. Major General Keifer and his son, Captain Keifer of his staff, are on their way home from Havana, but will not arrive here until Tuesday or Wednesday. During President Arthur's administration, while General Keifer was speaker of the house, Mrs. Keifer was a prominent figure in Washington society.

Conference of Rabbis.

Cincinnati, March 13.—The annual conference of American rabbis, which was to have been held in Boston, will begin its session here Tuesday, March 14. The 14th is the birthday of Rabbi Wise, its president, which caused the change from Boston to Cincinnati in order to make it a celebration of Rabbi Wise's eightieth birthday. The public has been invited to attend all meetings of the conference.

Molineux Must Stand Trial.

New York, March 13.—Roland B. Molineux must be tried on the indictment for the murder of Mrs. Kate J. Adams, found by the grand jury. Recorder Goff filed a decision and opinion denying the motion of counsel for the defendant to show cause why an order should not be made stopping action by grand jury against Molineux.

Died a Pauper.

New York, March 13.—A number of the friends of President and Mrs. McKinley were at the White House to say good-bye and to wish a happy journey to the chief executive and his wife, who started on their trip south. The affair was an informal one.

PURCHASING AGENT

Says He Heard No Complaints During the Cuban Campaign.

Chicago, March 13.—Having completed the inspection of the packing houses here, the army court of inquiry began to examine witnesses.

Major Jesse Lee, who is looking after the interests of General Miles, occupied a chair with the board of inquisitors.

The first witness called was Major Fred A. Smith, chief commissary of the department of the great lakes. It was the duty of Major Smith to purchase all the supplies used by the soldiers both while in camp in camp in the various parts of the country and also the supplies used in Cuba and Porto Rico.

Major Smith was on General Shafter's staff during the entire Cuban campaign. He said: "I never heard of any complaints being received at headquarters on the subject of rations. I had in charge the unloading of the beef that was brought to Cuba on the transports Mississippi and Port Victor.

"I saw it every day and it made a very favorable impression on me; I thought the beef of excellent quality, and had no reason to change my mind during all the time I continued to issue it. In point of preservation its condition was good. It was as good beef as I ever saw. There were no complaints received while I was there."

Good Transport Service.

Washington, March 13.—The report of the Grant's safe arrival at Manilla with a part of the Seventeenth and Fourth infantry is a source of considerable congratulation to the war department, which is now looking forward to the arrival of the Sherman at the same port about March 18. The war department is taking great interest in the performance of the transports on this long run, and if the Sherman and the Sheridan equal the Grant's record for speed, and for the health and safety of the troops, the department will feel that this government has a transport service better in quality, if not in quantity, than that of Great Britain herself.

Collision In a Fog.

Naugatuck, Conn., March 13.—In a head-on collision between two freight trains near Bradley station on the Highland division of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, George Dean of Hartford was buried under his cab and instantly killed, and his fireman, Dan Kennedy of Danbury, died a few hours later. The engineer and fireman on the train escaped by jumping. Several brakemen were injured, but none fatally. It is claimed that the collision was due to the fog.

Will Not Leave His Church.

New York, March 13.—Rev. Dr. Henry Van Dyke of the Brick Presbyterian church, who was recently invited to accept the professorship of English literature at Johns Hopkins university at Baltimore, but refused, and who was more recently invited to accept the same place at Princeton, the chair being endowed with $100,000 on the condition that Dr. Van Dyke would fill it, announces to his congregation that he would not leave the service of the church.

As a Public Park.

Santiago de Cuba, March 13.—A movement is on foot here to pursue the United States government to purchase San Juan hill to be used as a public park. The idea is that a certain portion could be set apart to be used as an American cemetery and the site of a mortuary church. A few thousand dollars spent upon the hill would make it a beautiful recreation ground, including a racetrack, a baseball diamond and tennis grounds.

Tribute to Dead Soldiers.

Washington, March 13.—The secretary of war has sent the following order to Major General Wesley Merritt at Governor's Island, N. Y.: "By direction of the president you will upon the arrival of the Roumania with the remains of the soldiers who were killed or have died at Santiago and Porto Rico fire a fitting salute, order all flags half-mast, and detail a sufficient guard of honor to see the caskets taken off the ship and express the thanks of the government to their former homes."

American Coal Abroad.

Hartlepool, Eng., March 13.—A large steamship owner has received overtures from American agents to carry American coal to Europe from 11 shillings to 12 shillings freight per ton. North of England coal merchants are alarmed at the steady growth of the American coal trade to European ports which formerly took English coal.

Queen Marie Convalescing.

Brussels, March 13.—The following bulletin was issued regarding the condition of Queen Marie Henriette: "The queen is progressing in her convalescence. She has refreshing sleep and is regaining her strength."

Mangled In a Collision.

Wellington, N. Z., March 13.—Five persons were killed and 50 injured in a collision between two excursion trains near Eukia.

BRYAN ON SIDE ISSUES

Believes Silver Should Have the Right of Way.

PRIVATE NOTE MADE PUBLIC

He Favors the Initiative and Referendum, but Is Not Ready to Pass on Government Ownership of Telegraphs and Railroads.

New York, March 13.—The Verdict prints a letter, for the first time made public, written by William J. Bryan in 1897 to a Chicago editor. It is dated Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 26, 1897, and after referring to personal matters says:

"I am in favor of the initiative and referendum as far as it can be applied to our conditions, and assisted in the adoption of such a plank in our state convention, but I believe an attempt to give that such prominence as you seem to give it means harm rather than advantage to the other reforms upon which the people are ready to act. I may be mistaken, but such is my opinion.

"In your letter you add the subject of government ownership of railroads, although your circular does not mention this. You are in error in supposing that I have advocated the government ownership of railroads. I have been so busily engaged in the study and discussion of the questions which have been immediately before us that I have never had opportunity to examine into the effect of the government ownership of railroads in other countries. Events have forced certain issues into the foreground, and the people are ready to act upon them. To invite them to pass over these questions and take up new ones will be a confession that we were wrong last fall and weaken the force of our arguments."

That Tennessee Tragedy.

Bristol, Tenn., March 13.—General Walker and Attorney General Hamilton, who were wounded in a shooting affray at the court here, are resting easily. General Walker was shot through the shoulder and side, the bullet penetrating the lung. The wound is a dangerous one, but not necessarily fatal. Attorney Hamilton's wound is serious. The bullet entered five inches above the navel and ranged downward. The wounded men refuse to talk of the affair.

Started Another Big Blaze.

Chicago, March 13.—The massive fire wall on the east of the 8-story structure at 207 Jackson boulevard, which was partly destroyed by fire Saturday night, fell almost without warning Sunday evening, completely demolishing the adjoining building and setting the ruins on fire. Loss on building and contents is estimated at $125,000. The loss on Saturday's fire will approximate $300,000.

Missing Girl Found.

New York, March 13.—Miss Henriette Wechsler, the young woman who has been missing from her home in Brooklyn since Wednesday last, was found in New York at the home of a midwife. Albert Smith, the navy yard postal clerk, who took a dose of poison on being questioned concerning the disappearance of the young woman, gave the address at which Miss Wechsler could be found.

Not In a Position to Talk.

Berlin, March 13.—During the discussion of foreign office estimates in the Reichstag the minister of foreign affairs, Baron Von Budow, replying to Herr Richter, the Radical leader, who asked a question regarding the acquisition of the Spanish islands, said he was not in a position to communicate anything definite on the subject.

Bicycle Rider Perishes.

Marysville, Cal., March 13.—The Marysville woolen mill has been damaged by fire to the amount of $150,000; insurance, $71,400. During the fire Frank Peck of Yuba City, a well known bicycle rider, entered the building and was overcome by the smoke. He burned to death.

A Noisy Meeting.

Bryan for President and those who pledge themselves to support the nominees of said State convention shall be entitled to participate in the county or legislative district conventions.

P. P. JOHNSTON, Chairman.
R. Owen Cochran, Secretary.

It is intimated very broadly now that the beef contractors slipped up on Mr. Alger's Commissary Department and have been feeding the soldier boys on "horse meat."

REAR Admiral Higginson declines to accept an offered promotion, on the ground that other officers, who served in the Santiago operations, go unrewarded. No one has heard of any declination of this character from Mr. Sampson, nor is Mr. Sampson likely to do such a thing. He isn't built that way.

No WONDER there was an epidemic of typhoid fever in some of the army camps. Lieutenant H. B. Sharp testified at the beef inquiry Saturday that the wagons which had not been cleaned after being used to transport manure and the wagons in which garbage had been carried, the bottoms of which were covered with slime in which maggots were crawling, were used to carry fresh meat to the soldiers at Camp Thomas, Chickamauga, last summer.

TO SELL HORSE MEAT.

Western Company Asks Permission of New York's Board of Health to Market the Stuff.

[New York Cor. Pittsburg Dispatch.] Horse meat by the pound! That is what New York is coming to, and juicy porterhouse steaks will soon be served in the East Side cafes that have been cut from the loins of young Western colts. It seems incredible, but the Board of Health listened to the application of the representative of the Medora Company, of Medora, N. D., for permission to establish horse meat depots throughout this city.

This company declares that it proposes to offer for sale only the meat of young horses, such as have never been in harness. Horse meat of this kind, it declares, is as palatable as the beef of cattle, and is cheaper and fully as wholesome—even better than the article of beef supplied by the Western houses. The Medora Company is said to have on its range in Dakota 45,000 head of young horses. Porterhouse horse steaks will be sold as low as five cents a pound and chuck steaks and stew meat at two cents a pound.

The purpose of the company is to cater especially to the foreign quarters of the city, among those persons who have been accustomed to the use of horse meat on the other side of the Atlantic. There is a strong probability that the application of the horse meat company will be granted. Should this be the case it will only be a question of a short time until this variety of food will be palmed off on the unsuspecting in the uptown cafes. The meat, if prepared by a skillful French chef, can be made to appear and taste so much like young beef that it will require a connoisseur to tell the difference.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hannick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

Carpetings for Spring.

We have the exclusive control here of a large manufacturer's output, embracing fully one hundred different patterns in Tapestries, Brussels, Moquettes, Velvets and Ingrain. After long and careful consideration we have adopted this method of Carpet selling for two reasons. First, we can give you a selection in point of quantity, quality and artistic designing the Cincinnati markets cannot rival, an impossibility under other conditions, as we have not the room to carry such an enormous stock as our selection line represents. Secondly, we can sell cheaper, much cheaper, than under the old method, as the factory carries our stock for us, and we need keep no reckoning of profit-clipping, remnants and unpopular patterns. Entering upon this different arrangement in our Carpet business there are three points in which we determine to excel: Private Patterns, High Grade Goods at Low Prices, Carpet Making. Think over what this means. First, you need not cover your floor with hackneyed patterns. On the contrary exclusive and fresh designs are at your disposal. Second, you need pay no more for the best than poorer grades cost elsewhere. Third, when the Carpet-Making is entrusted to us, we will have all Carpets machine-stitched; Bordered Carpets will be faultlessly mitered and sized. No ripped seams, no puckered corners, the cost no more. We solicit your patronage on this basis. Orders can be filled within twenty-four hours. Come in and look over our line.

BANK TAXES.

A New Turn in the Litigation—An Augusta Bank Sues to Compel the State to Refund.

FRANKFORT, KY., March 10.—The Farmers' National Bank of Augusta, Bracken County, filed suit to-day against State Auditor Stone asking for a mandamus to compel him to refund about $800 excess in taxes alleged to have been paid by the bank to the State, and the result of the suit will be of interest to every bank in the State.

After the Court of Appeals in 1897 declared the Hewitt law invalid, the Augusta bank proceeded to pay county, city and district taxes, as that decision held it must do, for the years 1893-4-5-6-7, although under the Hewitt law it had paid 75 cents on the $100 to the State for those years in lieu of all other taxes. The bank now seeks to recover the difference between the 75 cents tax paid for five years and the State rate of 42½ cents on the $100, which the court says was the correct rate, and which difference the Auditor refuses to refund.

Many other banks are on the same footing as the Augusta bank, and if the latter wins, the State will have to refund many thousands of dollars.

SHOWALTER WON.

Result of the Big Chess Match Between American and British Players.

NEW YORK, March 11.—The American chess players came out with flying colors against the Britishers in the cable chess match, which was begun in London and Brooklyn on Friday morning and concluded this evening at 6:30 o'clock, the score being 6 to 4.

Nearly from the start of this great annual contest the Americans seemed to get the better positions on the majority of boards, and although three metadors, namely, Showalter, Barry and Hodges, scored a win for America on each of the boards they were engaged on, no fewer than six games were drawn, but Champion Pillsbury had to resign his game against the British champion, Blackburn.

Showalter's brilliant play on the second board against Atkins caused general admiration, and when at his forty-fifth move he announced a mate in seven moves the spectators nearly went crazy with excitement. Atkins, of course, resigned. Barry, too, played excellent chess to-day, and after 51 moves he had beaten Lawrence on the third table.

Ordinances Held Valid.

The Court of Appeals decides that ordinances passed by fourth-class cities to prevent live stock from running at large, and providing for selling said stock when taken up and impounded are valid.

THEY CONFESSED.

A Sure Case Against the Parties Who Robbed Stores at Elizaville.

Mention was made Saturday of the arrest of Marion Allen and Charles Burns charged with stealing goods and money from the drugstore of Dr. Abney and the grocery of W. H. Prather at Elizaville.

The boys confessed and told where they had hid the goods. An investigation showed a wagon load of goods hid away, and some large boxes at the Nepton depot, sent there for shipment to some point in Indiana, where they intended to start a store. They implicate other boys in the wholesale robbery.

MRS. BEULAH WISE, aged about eighty years, residing near Bernard, fell Friday and broke her left arm just above the wrist. Dr. W. H. Hord, of Orangeburg, set the fracture.

THE SELBY--WATTS DEBATE.

The Australian Preacher Scores a Decided Triumph Over His English Secularist Antagonist.

Commercial Tribune: "The last of the four debates on 'Christianity vs. Secularism' took place at the Auditorium Friday evening between Messrs. Selby and Watts. Some of the general issues were discussed, though not settled. In debating the position of secularism with regard to marriage Mr. Selby charged that it was for free love out and out, and the statement was so pointed that Mr. Watts rose to protest and solemnly declare that there was not on record a single free-thought authority in favor or advocacy of free love. Mr. Selby at once produced a book written by a recent Vice President of the Secular Society of England, whose representative Mr. Watts is, in which the principles of free love were freely and fully advocated. The dispute on that subject ended there, and the anti-secularists triumphed."

"The rest of the evening was given to discussing the Christian code of morals as contrasted with the secularist. Mr. Watts described the moral man as the one who acted for the best interest of society, who was just, honest, loved his wife and family, and he said such a one had nothing to fear at any judgment day. The sanction for such conduct is its utility to society. Conscience can not be trusted, he said, as a sanction, as it is nothing but a result of training. The inquisitors and other persecutors were all guided by the conscience which was the result of the training they had received."

"Mr. Selby in reply argued that there was no doctrine in secularism, admitted to be good, which was not advocated in the Christian system. Secularism might satisfy the bodily and the intellectual wants of man; it does not meet his spiritual needs. Christianity, in a history of near 2,000 years, has shown itself adapted to the necessities of mankind. Secularists who want it supplanted by something else are fairly bound to show they have something better to give."

Enquirer: "The Watts-Selby debate at the Auditorium Friday night involved the question as to whether secularism was sufficient to satisfy the wants of humanity, Watts affirming, and basing his stand upon utilitarian grounds. The debate was uninteresting, in a manner, on account of the failure of Watts to invent or discover logical grounds for his position. Mr. Selby had no difficulty in dislodging his antagonist from every trench, and in conclusion left Watts at sea without paddle, sail, screw or rudder."

Mr. Selby recently delivered a series of lectures at the Christian Church, this city, that were highly enjoyed by all who heard them.

MORE BIG FINES.

Heavy Penalties Assessed Against Insurance Companies For Conspiring to Keep Up Rates.

VERSAILLES, KY., March 11.—The jury in the case of the Commonwealth vs. the Aetna Insurance Company and thirty-eight other fire insurance companies for alleged conspiracy in combining together to prevent competition in rates, after being out an hour, brought in a verdict this afternoon fining the defendants $400 each.

The case has been on trial since Wednesday. Col. Breckinridge and Hon. D. L. Thornton argued the case for the defendants and Prosecutor Robert B. Franklin and Hon. W. O. Davis for the prosecution.

J. T. Harahan to Marry.

Announcement was made Friday of the betrothal of Miss Mary Mallory, of Memphis, Tenn., and J. T. Harahan, Second Vice President of the Illinois Central Railroad. Miss Mallory is the daughter of Captain W. B. Mallory, and for years has been a leader in Memphis society. The wedding is scheduled for April 19th at the Mallory home.

Mr. Harahan is very well known in Maysville, and was at one time General Manager of the Chesapeake and Ohio road. Before taking service with the C. and O., he was for many years with the Louisville and Nashville.

Mr. Harahan's first wife was Miss Kehoe, a sister of the Messrs. Kehoe of this city.

A Young Sculptor.

LEXINGTON, KY., March 10.—Ignatius Maloney, a sixteen-year-old orphan, who was adopted four years ago by Mrs. Susan Caden, of this county, from the asylum in Cumminsville, Cincinnati, conducted by the Sisters of Charity, is the subject of much comment here, and will very likely become the ward of some philanthropist with a view to the cultivation of his natural talents for sculpture. With a wooden mallet made by his own hands, a chisel hammered out of an old file which he found on the farm, and only newspaper cuts of Dewey for his models, he has shaped from a common turnpike rock a miniature bust of the hero of Manila. The work is so perfect that it has attracted the admiration of many lovers of art, who jointly are devising a plan for the development of the boy's talents.

Lecture.

There will be a lecture at St. Patrick's Church Thursday evening, March 16th, at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. Father Grannan, of New Jersey. Subject, "The Glories of Ireland." Rev. Father Grannan is a member of the community of Passionists, an order noted for the eloquence and oratory of its members. The subject is one that furnishes a broad field for the lecturer, and the lecture will no doubt be of special interest from start to finish.

A Robertson County Author.

Mt. Olivet Advance: "The Youth's Companion of March 2 contains the story, 'Trusty and True,' the authorship of which belongs to Prof. H. W. Pepper, of Pin Hook, this county. As the paper only contains matter of the very highest literary character, this is most complimentary of this popular teacher, and makes the Advance feel rather stuck up to have him on its staff. He was paid $30 for this work."

Horses Wanted.

BERNARD.

Mrs. C. A. Tucker continues quite sick. Born, to wife of Gus Toile, a son, John Robert. Miss Lutie Pollitt, of Rectorville, was the guest of Mrs. Frank Cooper several days last week.

Mrs. Jim Lloyd left for Ft. Wayne, Indiana, last week to visit her daughter, Mrs. Reetta Garrett.

The postoffice question is agitating the minds of our people greatly just now. "To be or not to be" is the all abiding theme.

George Calvert and family have moved back to their home. He is doing very nicely now and all feel confident of his recovery.

Our school closed last Friday after a most successful term, under the excellent teacher, W. T. Pollitt, of Rectorville. This was his second year at Bernard.

How many young men and young women are cut off just as the future seems brightest and fullest of promise! They are taken away by the disease which causes over one-sixth of all the deaths in the world—the disease which doctors call consumption. There is absolutely no reason in the world why consumption should be fatal—why it should be even serious. It is a disease of the blood, and can be cured absolutely and always by purifying and enriching the blood. The only exception to this is the case where the disease has been neglected and improperly treated until it is stronger than the body—until the body has become so weak as to have lost the ability to recuperate. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption if used according to directions. It also cures all lingering coughs, bronchitis and throat affections.

Send 21 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page Common Sense Medical Adviser, illustrated.

Board of Trade.

The next meeting of the directors will be held Monday evening, March 13th, at 7:30 o'clock, and all are requested to be on hand.

The Board of Trade will meet next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Let all be present.

Both the above meetings will be held at the Council Chamber.

Writes Expressing the Gratitude of Himself and Soldiers For the Periodicals Recently Sent Them.

PINAR DEL RIO, CUBA, March 6, 1899.

Editor Maysville Bulletin, Maysville, Ky.—Sir: Our good friends in Maysville can hardly realize, I thin' our gratitude for the books and papers they have sent to us and the many kind and encouraging letters which have come with them. Will you give us the use of your columns to express our thanks? Many of the books and papers have been distributed and have afforded much satisfaction. Some boxes have not yet arrived, but the delay will only effect a pleasing distribution as to time. No charity is better than that which gives soldiers good books. Sincerely yours,

Shock Double Tragedy Enacted In Quiet Ohio Village.

Mansfield, O., March 13.—A shocking tragedy was enacted at Lucas, a village six miles southwest of here, when Madison Copus shot his wife through the head, killing her instantly, and then placed the revolver to his head and sent a bullet crashing through his own brain. Copus was a well-to-do farmer. He came home, entered the room where Mrs. Copus was, and without saying a word to her, placed the revolver above her right ear and pulled the trigger. She died instantly. The daughter, Minnie, heard the shot and ran from the kitchen into the room. Just as she entered the room her father raised the revolver, placed it against his forehead and fired a bullet into his own brain. He died soon afterward. The only cause given for the murder and suicide is that Copus was jealous of his wife.

The Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company, in its circular for the week, has the following:

The offerings during the past week were quite large, sufficiently so to occupy the entire day on Wednesday and Thursday, and consisting almost entirely of new tobacco. There was a full attendance of buyers and close attention was paid to everything offered. We quote no change in prices on new stock, though the bidding was strong with an evident desire on the part of manufacturers to take all grades suitable to their purposes and the competition between them was very active. Generally prices were more satisfactory for the better grades than they were last week, and the average was up to expectation in most cases.

Old stock was shown only in small quantities, and the market on these goods was very strong. In fact, we reached higher prices than at any time this year. A lot of 8 hdbs from Shelby County, ranging from $18.75 to $24.75, sold at the Bodman House. There is but very little of this old tobacco left in the warehouses, and indeed, very little of any kind of old stock.

The receipts, though liberal, were somewhat curtailed by cold weather, and in the last few days by the high river.

We look for an active market and strong bidding, as the manufacturers will probably want to supply themselves before the falling off in receipts, which generally occurs between the time of winter order and summer order tobacco.
